Group

Group resources really work!

This Group resource incorporates our R.E.A.L. approach to ministry. It reinforces a growing friendship with Jesus, encourages long-term learning, and results in life transformation, because it's

Relational

Learner-to-learner interaction enhances learning and builds Christian friendships.

Experiential

What learners experience through discussion and action sticks with them up to 9 times longer than what they simply hear or read.

Applicable

The aim of Christian education is to equip learners to be both hearers and doers of God's Word.

Learner-based

Learners understand and retain more when the learning process takes into consideration how they learn best.

Elisha Helps a Widow and Her Sons

2 Kings 4:1-7

I Need...

What I learned today:

Bible Passage: 2 Kings 4:1-7

God used a prophet named Elisha to help a widow who didn't have any money to pay her bills. Her husband had died, and all she had left in the house was a little oil. Some people she owed money to were even going to take her sons away and make them work as slaves!

Elisha told the woman to go find as many jars as she could from all of her neighbors. So she did exactly what Elisha told her and came back with all the jars she could get. Then Elisha told her to go inside with her sons, close the door, and start pouring oil into all of the jars. Her sons kept bringing the jars to her, and she kept pouring oil into them. When her sons told her that there were no more jars, the oil stopped flowing.

But the widow had poured oil into enough jars to sell and pay off all her debts. She even had some money left over! God does amazing things as he cares for us!

Key Verse: "He defends the cause of the fatherless and the widow, and loves the alien, giving him food and clothing" (Deuteronomy 10:18).

Bible Point: God cares for needy people.

Daily Challenge

This week kids committed to help someone in need in a specific way and drew a picture of it on the other side of this page. Help your child weave faith into life this week and follow through on this commitment!

Oil Search Find as many uses for oil as you can in your house, and talk about each product or situation that calls for or uses oil. Some of the things you might find that use oil are oil lamps and oil heaters. There are many uses for oil in cooking—you might want to look through recipe books to find what kinds of foods you'd need oil for in either baking or frying. Another use for oil is in products like baby oil, suntan oil, or bath oil. Talk about how each of those might be used as well. After you've looked for all the modern-day uses for oil, talk about the things the widow might have used oil for. Then discuss how God used oil to care for the needy widow and her family.

Dear Parents,

Your family is important to our church, and we want to support your role as spiritual leader to your child.

In our effort to provide the highest quality Christian education, we are using FaithWeaver NOW® Sunday school. FaithWeaver NOW makes Bible learning fun by using a variety of active experiences to help students learn in the ways they learn best.

FaithWeaver NOW also helps people of all ages “weave faith into life” by applying the Bible to their lives throughout every week. With FaithWeaver NOW, students walk through the Bible over the course of three years.

Research shows that the most powerful influence on children’s faith development is the conversation about faith that takes place in the home. We want to partner with you in your child’s Christian education.

With the resources that are part of FaithWeaver NOW, you can make a huge contribution to your child’s Christian growth by leading activities and discussions that help make connections and apply what’s learned at church to daily life. That’s why every week your child will receive a take-home page that includes ideas for family discussions and activities that will help cement what your child learns at church.

All FaithWeaver NOW resources—for infants through adults—explore the same Bible passage each week, making it easier for you to help your family grow in faith together.

This quarter, we hope you’ll find encouragement in your role as a parent and a spiritual leader to your child. May these tools serve to remind you how important you are in your child’s life—and how blessed you are to be entrusted with this awesome responsibility!

God bless you,

Your FaithWeaver NOW Church
