Group

Group resources really work!

This Group resource incorporates our R.E.A.L. approach to ministry. It reinforces a growing friendship with Jesus, encourages long-term learning, and results in life transformation, because it's:

Relational

Person-to-person interaction enhances spiritual growth and builds Christian friendships.

Experiential

What we experience through action and discussion sticks with us up to 9 times longer than what we simply hear or read.

Applicable

The aim of ministry is to equip people to be both hearers and doers of God's Word.

Lifelong

Experiences transform the heart, moving faith beyond the walls of church and into everyday life for years to come.

Directions: Circle the items you want to use in your story. Then write or draw your story below.

What I learned today:

Bible Passage: 2 Samuel 5:1-5; Psalm 37

David, a humble shepherd boy, had been chosen by God to become king over all of Israel. That was a big job! When he became king, he probably felt nervous and scared about being king of a whole country! (Wouldn't you be a little nervous?) So David relied on God to help him. He wrote Psalm 37 to show some of the reasons he relied on and trusted God. David knew that God never fails. We can rely on God, too!

Key Verse: "God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble" (Psalm 46:1).

Bible Point: We can rely on God.

- @ Why can we rely on God?
- @ When has our family felt the need to rely on God?
- @ In what ways has God shown our family that he never fails?

Daily Challenge

Today kids committed to one of the following Daily Challenges.

Help your child weave faith into life this week and follow through on his or her challenge. (Have kids circle their choice below.)

- Have a sleepover at your house, and teach your friends the Key Verse.
- Each night before you go to bed, thank God for taking care of you that day.
- Each morning, tell your parents that you'll rely on God to take care of your family that day.

Recipe Reliance As a family, make dinner from a collection of recipes you've never used before. When your meal is finished, talk about these questions:

- How did we rely on the recipes to create this meal?
- Why did we need to rely on the recipes?
- How do you think the meal might have turned out if we hadn't relied on the recipes?
- How is relying on recipes similar to and different from relying on God?
- When are some times our family has relied on God?

Dear Parents,

Your family is important to our church, and we want to support your role as spiritual leader to your child.

In our effort to provide the highest quality Christian education, we are using FaithWeaver NOW® Sunday school. FaithWeaver NOW makes Bible learning fun by using a variety of active experiences to help students learn in the ways they learn best.

FaithWeaver NOW also helps people of all ages “weave faith into life” by applying the Bible to their lives throughout every week. With FaithWeaver NOW, students walk through the Bible over the course of three years.

Research shows that the most powerful influence on children’s faith development is the conversation about faith that takes place in the home. We want to partner with you in your child’s Christian education.

With the resources that are part of FaithWeaver NOW, you can make a huge contribution to your child’s Christian growth by leading activities and discussions that help make connections and apply what’s learned at church to daily life. That’s why every week your child will receive a take-home page that includes ideas for family discussions and activities that will help cement what your child learns at church.

All FaithWeaver NOW resources—for infants through adults—explore the same Bible passage each week, making it easier for you to help your family grow in faith together.

This quarter, we hope you’ll find encouragement in your role as a parent and a spiritual leader to your child. May these tools serve to remind you how important you are in your child’s life—and how blessed you are to be entrusted with this awesome responsibility!

God bless you,

Your FaithWeaver NOW Church

The FaithWeaver NOW Student Book is woven into every lesson to provide an essential transformative experience that makes the Bible unforgettable.

BONUS...every Student Book includes weekly take-home activities!
