Group resources really work!

This Group resource incorporates our R.E.A.L. approach to ministry. It reinforces a growing friendship with Jesus, encourages long-term learning, and results in life transformation, because it's

Relational

Learner-to-learner interaction enhances learning and builds Christian friendships.

Experiential

What learners experience through discussion and action sticks with them up to 9 times longer than what they simply hear or read.

Applicable

The aim of Christian education is to equip learners to be both hearers and doers of God's Word.

Learner-based

Learners understand and retain more when the learning process takes into consideration how they learn best.

John the Baptist Prepares the Way for Jesus

Mark 1:1-8

♥♥ Clean Hearts

Clean for Jesus

In-class Activity

Create

in me

a pure

heart,

O God.

(Psalm 51:10)

What I learned today:

Bible Time: Mark 1:1-8

Today's Bible passage is about a man named John the Baptist. He lived in the desert, wore camel's hair clothes, and ate locusts and honey. (I wonder if they were anything like the pretzel snacks we ate. Probably not!) Anyway, people from all over came out to the desert to hear the important news John had to tell. And here's what John told them: "Get your hearts ready for God!" He told the people to ask God to forgive them for the bad things they did and to make their hearts clean, because someone very special was coming. Jesus was coming!

Key Verse: "Create in me a pure heart, O God" (Psalm 51:10).

Bible Point: We prepare our hearts for Jesus.

Daily Challenge

Today kids committed to one of the following Daily Challenges. Help your child weave faith into life this week and follow through on his or her challenge! (Have kids each circle their choice below.)

- Ask someone to join you in decorating your room for Christmas, and as you do tell why you want to prepare your heart for Jesus.
- Before bed, think about different choices you made that day. Then pray and ask God to create a clean, pure heart in you.
- Sing a song of praise to Jesus for his forgiveness.

Clean Hearts, Clean Homes

Throughout the Christmas season, offer to help your parents keep the house clean. As you clean, talk to your parents about this week's Key Verse. Do you remember it? Here it is again: "Create in me a pure heart, O God" (Psalm 51:10).

Hearty Hearts

Make "hearty heart sandwiches"

for lunch one day. Use a heart-shaped cookie cutter to cut slices of bread into hearts. Then spread the shapes with peanut butter and honey.

If you want, top your sandwiches with raisins (they can be the locusts!). As you enjoy your lunch, tell your family about how John the Baptist told people to make their hearts clean and ready for Jesus.

Dear Parents,

Your family is important to our church, and we want to support your role as spiritual leader to your child.

In our effort to provide the highest quality Christian education, we are using FaithWeaver NOW® Sunday school. FaithWeaver NOW makes Bible learning fun by using a variety of active experiences to help students learn in the ways they learn best.

FaithWeaver NOW also helps people of all ages “weave faith into life” by applying the Bible to their lives throughout every week. With FaithWeaver NOW, students walk through the Bible over the course of three years.

Research shows that the most powerful influence on children’s faith development is the conversation about faith that takes place in the home. We want to partner with you in your child’s Christian education.

With the resources that are part of FaithWeaver NOW, you can make a huge contribution to your child’s Christian growth by leading activities and discussions that help make connections and apply what’s learned at church to daily life. That’s why every week your child will receive a take-home page that includes ideas for family discussions and activities that will help cement what your child learns at church.

All FaithWeaver NOW resources—for infants through adults—explore the same Bible passage each week, making it easier for you to help your family grow in faith together.

This quarter, we hope you’ll find encouragement in your role as a parent and a spiritual leader to your child. May these tools serve to remind you how important you are in your child’s life—and how blessed you are to be entrusted with this awesome responsibility!

God bless you,

Your FaithWeaver NOW Church

The FaithWeaver NOW Student Book is woven into every lesson to provide an essential transformative experience that makes the Bible unforgettable.

BONUS...every Student Book includes weekly take-home activities!
