Group

Group resources really work!

This Group resource incorporates our R.E.A.L. approach to ministry. It reinforces a growing friendship with Jesus, encourages long-term learning, and results in life transformation, because it's:

Relational

Person-to-person interaction enhances spiritual growth and builds Christian friendships.

Experiential

What we experience through action and discussion sticks with us up to 9 times longer than what we simply hear or read.

Applicable

The aim of ministry is to equip people to be both hearers and doers of God's Word.

Lifelong

Experiences transform the heart, moving faith beyond the walls of church and into everyday life for years to come.

BIBLE FOCUS (THE BASICS)

God made a big promise. He said a special day would come, and on this special day, he would send a special person, a relative of King David, to lead the people. This person would do what was right and just and fair. This person would save God's people. They would live in safety. Although God made this promise a long time ago, he kept his promise on the special day Jesus was born. Jesus would be the one to save the people. Jesus would be "God with us."

Bible Point: Jesus fulfilled God's promise.

Key Verse: "All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had said through the prophet: 'The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and they will call him 'Immanuel'—which means, 'God with us' " (Matthew 1:22-23).

Daily Challenge

Choose a way you'll remember to keep your promises this week just as God kept his promise by sending Jesus:

- Get some paper and writing supplies. Pray about the way you honor your promises. As you pray, creatively express your promise-keeping through creative writing. When you're done, pray and ask God to help you keep your promises.
- Draw small pictures to depict the different ways God has kept promises to you or other people you know. Combine those drawings into a collage so you can stand back and admire the promises God's kept. Hang your collage in a prominent place in your room, and remember to thank God for keeping his promises when you see it.
- Put your promise card in a place you won't forget it. When you get home, talk to someone in your family about it. Give your card to the person you wrote it to, and ask God to help you as you follow through on this promise.

THE WORD FOR THE WEEK

MONDAY Exodus 3:17

- How does this promise God made to the Israelites encourage you about something you're facing?

TUESDAY Romans 4:18-21

THURSDAY Joshua 21:45

- Do you believe God can fulfill all of his promises to you? Why or why not?

FRIDAY 2 Peter 1:3-4

SATURDAY Galatians 3:14

Family Fun

Keep Your Promises

Gather condensed milk, food coloring, white bread, new paintbrushes, bowls, and a toaster. Set out four small bowls. Pour into each bowl one tablespoon of condensed milk. Drop a few drops of food coloring into the bowls to make the colors of your choice. Mix well.

As a family talk about the importance of keeping promises. Discuss the importance of trusting God to keep his promises. Then, with a new paintbrush, use the colored milk as your "paint," and paint pictures or designs on your bread that represent how God keeps his promises. For example, you might paint a heart, a cross, or a rainbow. To reveal your design, lightly toast your bread in the toaster. Say a "toast" to God, and thank him for fulfilling his biggest promise through Jesus, and then enjoy your snacks together.

Dear Parents,

Your family is important to our church, and we want to support your role as spiritual leader to your child.

In our effort to provide the highest quality Christian education, we are using FaithWeaver NOW® Sunday school. FaithWeaver NOW makes Bible learning fun by using a variety of active experiences to help students learn in the ways they learn best.

FaithWeaver NOW also helps people of all ages “weave faith into life” by applying the Bible to their lives throughout every week. With FaithWeaver NOW, students walk through the Bible over the course of three years.

Research shows that the most powerful influence on children’s faith development is the conversation about faith that takes place in the home. We want to partner with you in your child’s Christian education.

With the resources that are part of FaithWeaver NOW, you can make a huge contribution to your child’s Christian growth by leading activities and discussions that help make connections and apply what’s learned at church to daily life. That’s why every week your child will receive a take-home page that includes ideas for family discussions and activities that will help cement what your child learns at church.

All FaithWeaver NOW resources—for infants through adults—explore the same Bible passage each week, making it easier for you to help your family grow in faith together.

This quarter, we hope you’ll find encouragement in your role as a parent and a spiritual leader to your child. May these tools serve to remind you how important you are in your child’s life—and how blessed you are to be entrusted with this awesome responsibility!

God bless you,

Your FaithWeaver NOW Church
