We know you care about kids...

We do, too!

That's why we attempt to ensure that all crafts, toys, and gizmos meet or exceed national safety standards—and are produced by manufacturers that don't use child labor or abuse their labor force. You can order Group resources knowing that in addition to caring for your kids, you're also caring for children elsewhere.

Let's keep kids safe!

We strive to provide products that are mechanically reliable and hold together during normal, intended usage. Items are also checked for flammability, and both paint and surface coatings are checked for heavy metals—including lead.

You can help your children stay safe by seeing that toys and gizmos are used as designed, for the purposes designed, and that any broken pieces are disposed of promptly and properly. We value your feedback. If you become aware of a problem affecting the safety of any of our products, please inform us immediately.

The future of Sunday school + family ministry is NOW.

No doubt about it, the world is changing. Families used to go to church every week. Kids used to have longer attention spans. Teachers used to have more time to prepare. And didn't our budgets used to be bigger?

Even the Sunday school Bible curriculum you used just a couple of years ago is already out of date. But there's one thing that's never changed: the need to grow families closer to Jesus.

That's why we created FaithWeaver NOW®, and it's different from anything you've ever seen before!

It combines Sunday school with family ministry. ■■■■

Sure, you've seen Sunday school aimed at families. But FaithWeaver NOW actually hits the target by having everyone in the family learning about the same Scripture each week.

It's simpler and easier. ■■■■

Sometimes change is a wonderful thing. Gone are the days when you needed to spend hours preparing your lessons and hunting for supplies. FaithWeaver NOW will have you and your team ready to go in a snap.

It's made for NOW. ■■■■

Life is complicated and full of distractions. FaithWeaver NOW keeps faith on track through even the most frenzied lifestyles.

What makes FaithWeaver NOW the perfect curriculum for TODAY's church?

Jesus Teaches About Commitment

Mark 8:31-38

Socially, third- and fourth-graders are eager to be part of a group. Being accepted makes them feel successful and secure, and they may be tempted to stretch their ethics a little to accomplish that goal. Help them see that cliques may come and go, but Jesus is the truest friend they'll ever have. Use this lesson to show kids that following Jesus means putting him first in their lives and that the result will be everlasting security.

Jesus Teaches About Commitment

Mark 8:31-38

BIBLE BACKGROUND
FOR LEADERS

Jesus Rebuked Peter

.....

The disciples were likely counting on a great earthly kingdom in which Jesus would lead the Jews in overthrowing the Romans and would place his disciples in important positions. Jesus’ statements didn’t go along with those expectations! Peter wanted Jesus to change his mind and forget all this talk about dying.

Peter’s thinking was based on wrong assumptions because he saw things from a purely human point of view. Here we see a clear statement about what it means to follow Jesus. Too often we think of God as a powerful being who can help us advance our own agendas. Instead, truly following Jesus means listening to what he says, discovering his will for our lives, and then obediently following, no matter how attractive or repulsive that may seem to us at the time.

Jesus Challenged the Crowd

A crowd had apparently gathered to hear Jesus, and he wanted to clarify his meaning. This is not a description of what some call “easy believism.” Instead, Jesus points out how denying oneself means turning away from selfish, self-protective attitudes and seeking the true humility and faith God wants to see in us.

What does it mean to take up your cross? For Jesus’ disciples to each take up his own cross didn’t mean just to endure suffering. It meant to accept fully the suffering they would face because of their faith in Christ. Jesus wanted his disciples to know that their faith came with a cost.

Stand Firm in Faith

As he spoke of what it means to follow him, Jesus knew that many in the crowd around him wouldn’t be followers he would recognize as his own when he returns. Our generation is much like that of Jesus’ day. People who claim to be religious—or even Christian—often shy away from bold witnessing for Jesus. It’s easy to say you believe in God, but it’s much more difficult to confess you’re a Jesus-following Christian.

The Jesus Connection

Humans are willing to sacrifice a lot for the sake of those they love. Your relationship with Jesus will require sacrifice, risk, and loyal commitment—but it’s all worth it!

How can you take up your cross? Try living out the “Joy” acronym: Pray about one specific way you’ll put Jesus first (such as spending time with him first thing each day), put others second (such as washing a friend’s car), and put yourself last (such as giving up time watching TV in order to help someone else). You can write your prayer here.

1 GETTING STARTED

Mirror Motions

What You'll Do ■■■■■■

Welcome kids warmly as they arrive, and ask them how their week went.

Have kids find partners, and have them choose one person to be the Motion Maker and one to be the Imitator. The Motion Maker will pantomime motions, and the Imitator must try to copy him or her. Have kids do this four times. The first time, the original mimes can give verbal clues to their partners to help them know what to do. They could say, "Now we'll brush our teeth" or "Now let's comb our hair." Then have kids switch roles. After both have been the Motion Maker and have used verbal clues, have the pairs mirror their partners' motions without verbal cues.

Talk With Kids ■■■■

Lead kids in this discussion.

Ask:

- What was it like to try to follow the motions of your partner?
- Tell about someone you like to try to imitate.
- How was following your partner's motions like or unlike following Jesus?

Say: You did a great job following your partner. The Bible tells us to follow Jesus and not be ashamed. So this week we'll learn how to ► COMMIT TO FOLLOW JESUS.

2 BIBLE EXPLORATION

Go With Jesus!

What You'll Do ■■■■■■

Make sure kids all have Bibles, and ask a willing child to read aloud Mark 8:31-38. Then distribute pens and this week's Bible Truth Sleuth pages, and have kids turn to the "Take Up Your Cross" activity.

Say: On your Bible Truth Sleuth page, there are two keys. On the bottom key, write down several things that you want, need, hope to get, or think are cool.

Encourage kids to write on both sides of the key. As kids write, punch out the key shape from the "Door to Heaven" sheet. Set it aside for later.

Go With Jesus! Easy Prep

Tear out the Lesson 1
pages from each Bible
Truth Sleuth student book.

Ask:

- What are some things you listed on your key?
- Why are those things important to you?

Say: Jesus tells us in our Bible passage that following him takes commitment. Jesus said, “If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me.” Jesus also asked, “What good is it for a man to gain the whole world, yet forfeit (or give up) his soul?”

Ask:

- What does it mean to deny ourselves?
- How does denying ourselves show that we’re committed to Jesus?
- What does it take to follow Jesus?
- What are some things that are important to God?

Say: Now on the top key, write things that God likes and values. When you’re done, cut out the two keys.

Play “ ’Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus” (track 2 on the CD) while the kids cut. Have them cut out each key very carefully so that the correct key will fit into the opening of the “Door to Heaven” sheet.

Have kids try to fit their world keys into the keyhole of the “Door to Heaven” sheet. They’ll quickly notice that the key will not fit.

Say: Let’s get rid of those keys. Have kids bring their world keys and lay them in a pile. When we deny ourselves, take up our crosses, and follow Jesus the way Jesus said in the Bible, that means we’re choosing to focus on Jesus and put him first in our lives.

We can’t allow our things to be more important than Jesus. Holding on to them makes it difficult to follow Jesus, and if we don’t follow Jesus, we won’t be able to open the door to heaven. Jesus is the only way to open that door. So let’s pick up the other key and see if that one fits.

Let all kids try their keys before you continue.

Talk With Kids ■■■■

Lead kids in this discussion.

Ask:

- How does focusing on Jesus open the door to heaven?
- How are God’s priorities different from ours?
- What kinds of things might you have to give up to follow Jesus?

Say: Following Jesus takes commitment. And when we’re willing to lay down our things that seem important and take up the cross, we take the first step in doing our part to ► COMMIT TO FOLLOW JESUS. That doesn’t mean that God will never give you the things you like or want. It means that Jesus needs to be more important to you than those things. Let’s see what our Key Verse says about following Jesus.

Key Verse Groups

What You'll Do ■■■■■■

Have kids get into four groups, and give each group a Bible. To ensure kids have fun in their groups, you may want to place kids who like music in Group 1, kids who like to draw in Group 2, kids who like drama in Group 3, and kids who are problem solvers in Group 4. If you aren't sure which kids to put into which group, just ask them what their interests are.

Have kids open their Bibles to the Key Verse, Romans 1:16, and ask for a child in each group to read the verse aloud quietly to the group: “I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes: first for the Jew, then for the Gentile.”

Say: Following Jesus takes commitment. We might have to give something up, make choices that are hard to make, or do some things we don't feel like we're ready to do. But the Bible tells us to not be ashamed of the gospel. That means we can take those steps to ► COMMIT TO FOLLOW JESUS.

Each group is going to give us a new spin on the Key Verse. Group 1 will turn the verse into a song; Group 2 will make a poster; Group 3 will mime the verse; and Group 4 will make a list of ways they can show they're not ashamed of the gospel.

Quietly play “ ’Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus” (track 2 on the CD) while kids work. When they've finished, have groups take turns reading the original Key Verse and then sharing their new interpretations of the verse.

Talk With Kids ■■■■

Lead kids in this discussion.

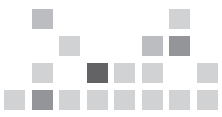

Ask:

- What do you think being “not ashamed of the gospel” means?
- Tell about a time you were not ashamed of the gospel.
- How does being “not ashamed of the gospel” show your commitment to Jesus?

Say: As we ► COMMIT TO FOLLOW JESUS, he wants us to trust him—even though he's told us it will be hard and will take some sacrifices. Let's sing a song as a commitment of trust to Jesus.

Pass out copies of the lyrics, and play “ ’Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus” (track 2 on the CD). Lead the children in singing the song.

♪ 'Tis so sweet to trust in Jesus,
Just to take him at his word,
Just to rest upon his promise,
Just to know, “Thus saith the Lord.”

(Chorus)

Jesus, Jesus, how I trust him!
How I've proved him o'er and o'er!
Jesus, Jesus, precious Jesus!
O, for grace to trust him more!

I'm so glad I learned to trust him,
Precious Jesus, Savior, friend.
And I know that he is with me;
He'll be with me to the end.

(Repeat chorus.)

3 WEAVING FAITH
INTO LIFE

Committed to Jesus

What You'll Do ■■■■■■

Say: Let's do some role-plays about kids facing difficult situations. We'll look at ways they can show they're not ashamed of Jesus.

Have kids form three groups, and give each group paper, a pen, and a "Don't Be Ashamed" card. Have groups appoint one person to write answers to the questions found on their cards, and then ask the groups to read the scenarios on their cards and answer the two questions that follow. Encourage kids to be as thorough in their responses as possible. After groups have written responses to their questions, have them work for a few minutes to prepare their role-plays. When the groups are ready, have them perform their role-plays.

After all the groups have presented their role-plays, gather the children and have them sit down.

Talk With Kids ■■■■

Lead kids in this discussion.

Ask:

- Which of these scenarios did you think was most difficult? Why?
- When have you had a similar experience?
- In these situations, what did it take to follow Jesus?
- How can you show a full commitment to following Jesus?

Daily Challenges

What You'll Do ■■■■■■

Say: Let's think about how we can ► COMMIT TO FOLLOW JESUS this week.

Have kids find this week's Daily Challenges on their Bible Truth Sleuth pages and choose one to do this week. They can choose one or more of these three options:

- Give up a favorite activity to spend time with Jesus this week. A good way to spend time with Jesus is to read about him in one of the Gospels: Matthew, Mark, Luke, or John.
- Donate a favorite toy to someone.
- Talk to someone you don't usually talk to about Jesus.

Make sure you choose a Daily Challenge as well, and tell the kids what you chose. Kids will be more inclined to follow through when they see you doing the same.

Talk With Kids ■■■■

Lead kids in this discussion.

Ask:

- What's a practical way you're going to do your Daily Challenge? Include a time, a place, and other ideas.

Say: Following Jesus takes commitment, and following through on your Daily Challenges will, too. Let's ► COMMIT TO FOLLOW JESUS this week as we complete our Daily Challenges.

Weaving Faith at Home

Send the letter to parents home with your kids or give it to parents when they pick up their children. This is a great way to show families they're important to your church and to support their role as spiritual leaders to their children.

Encourage kids to talk with their parents about the Daily Challenges they chose and what they learned about following Jesus. Kids can also do the activities in the "HomeConnect" section of their Bible Truth Sleuth pages with their families.

Talk to your Director about emailing the FREE FamilyConnect to all your church's families. Available at group.com/digital.

Close in prayer. Thank God for committing to us, and ask him to help us better commit to him. As you close the prayer, have each child say, "I'm not ashamed to follow you, Jesus."
