The future of Sunday school + family ministry is NOW.

No doubt about it, the world is changing. Families used to go to church every week. Kids used to have longer attention spans. Teachers used to have more time to prepare. And didn't our budgets used to be bigger?

Even the Sunday school Bible curriculum you used just a couple of years ago is already out of date. But there's one thing that's never changed: the need to grow families closer to Jesus.

That's why we created FaithWeaver NOW®, and it's different from anything you've ever seen before!

It combines Sunday school with family ministry.

Sure, you've seen Sunday school aimed at families. But FaithWeaver NOW actually hits the target by having everyone in the family learning about the same Scripture each week.

It's simpler and easier.

Sometimes change is a wonderful thing. Gone are the days when you needed to spend hours preparing your lessons and hunting for supplies. FaithWeaver NOW will have you and your team ready to go in a snap.

It's made for NOW.

John the Baptist Prepares the Way for Jesus Mark 1:1-8

Most third- and fourth-graders have helped their parents get ready for company. Usually this involves a lot of action. They might help move small furniture. They clean their rooms. Getting ready for Jesus involves similar preparation. It's easy for kids to see that getting ready for Jesus means taking action. Use this lesson to help kids also see that getting ready for Jesus doesn't necessarily involve doing good things, but involves a change of attitude.

John the Baptist Prepares the Way for Jesus

Mark 1:1-8

BIBLE BACKGROUND FOR LEADERS

Jesus Brings Good News

Mark saw Jesus' life, ministry, death, and resurrection as the beginning of the gospel. The word gospel, derived from the Old English godspel, means "good news."

Prophets Foretold About Jesus

As Mark began his Gospel, he launched into a quotation from the Old Testament. By connecting what he was saying about Jesus with the words of the prophets, Mark built validity for his own message in the minds of his Jewish readers.

Some question why Mark said the quotation is from Isaiah when in reality the first part is from Malachi 3:1. Mark is mentioning together two quotations on the same topic, and crediting both to Isaiah would have been acceptable for Mark's audience.

By using the quotation from Isaiah in Mark 1:3, Mark emphasized the kingly nature of Jesus. In those days, a servant often traveled ahead of a king to alert people that the king was coming.

John the Baptist Comes Before Jesus

The last half of this passage shows that John the Baptist did what was prophesied in the Old Testament: He came to prepare the way—more specifically, the people—for Jesus' coming. As people repented in response to John's preaching and confessed their sins, their hearts were prepared to accept their coming King.

John the Baptist's choice of clothing was not accidental: He likely was identifying himself with the prophet Elijah, who dressed the same way (2 Kings 1:8). His was the clothing of the poor, and his food was also that of the very poor. John was humbling himself, knowing how great the coming Jesus would be. In those days, it was the job of the lowest servant to untie a visitor's sandals and wash his feet. John let people know that as eloquent and persuasive as his preaching might be, he was the lowest of the low in comparison with the glory of the coming Savior, Jesus.

The Jesus Connection

At Christmas, we anticipate the birth of Jesus. His birth, death, and resurrection make our lives in heaven possible. There is always much to do before Christmas. But Jesus cares more about our hearts than about gifts and decorations. We can prepare our hearts by turning from actions and attitudes that distract us from Jesus. What do you need to turn from? You can write your prayer here.

1 GETTING STARTED

Banana Anna

What You'll Do

Welcome kids warmly as they arrive, and ask them how their week went.

Say: I'm expecting a special surprise…but so far it hasn't arrived. Give kids paper and markers.

A special surprise will arrive soon. In order to get ready for the arrival of this surprise, let's learn a little bit about it first. I'll describe the surprise, and I want you to draw a picture of it. There are a few rules, though. You must listen to the entire description before you draw. You'll have only the information I'll give you. You can't ask any questions, so listen closely. I'll tell you when you can start drawing, and you'll have only two minutes to draw. Is everyone ready? Pause. Let's get started!

The surprise comes from very far away. Pause. It's thin and very rich. Pause. It's been on television and in at least one movie. Pause. It can disappear very quickly.

Okay, you only have two minutes to draw your pictures, so you'll have to draw fast. Are you ready? Pause. Go! After two minutes, retrieve the banana from its hiding place but don't let kids see it yet.

I'm happy to say our special surprise has arrived! I'm pleased to introduce you to (pause and pull out the banana) Banana Anna!

Now let's take a look at how your pictures compare with Banana Anna. Our first description was that bananas come from very far away. Bananas come from tropical countries, so they have to be shipped here. The second clue was that bananas are thin. Well, if you look at Banana Anna, you will see that it is quite thin. Our third clue was that bananas are very rich. Bananas are rich in nutrients. The next clue was that the banana has been on television and in at least one movie. You can see bananas in TV commercials, and there have been funny movies made in which people slip on banana peels. Our last clue was that a banana could disappear very quickly. If you watch closely, you'll see that happen. Have kids clean their hands, and then give a banana to each child. Allow kids to peel and eat the bananas.

Talk With Kids

Lead kids in this discussion.

Ask:

- How accurate were your sketches of the surprise? Explain.
- What would have helped you draw a more accurate sketch?

- Why do you or don't you think the description you were given helped you prepare for the surprise?

Say: Today we're going to learn about John the Baptist and what he did to try to help people get ready for the arrival of the Messiah—the person God promised to send to save humanity. Jesus is the Messiah, but because of John's description of Jesus people didn't recognize him when he finally came. As a result, they weren't ready for him. Today we'll explore the ways ▶ WE PREPARE OUR HEARTS FOR JESUS and why that's important.

2 BIBLE EXPLORATION

Reading the Clues

What You'll Do

Have kids sit in a circle. Show them the Bible Timeline, and invite kids to find and point to the "John Baptizes Jesus" picture.

Say: Today we're looking at the event at the beginning of Jesus' ministry. To get started, let's look in the Bible at the book of Mark.

Invite a willing child to read aloud Mark 1:1-4.

Say: John the Baptist was the messenger sent ahead of Jesus to tell people to get ready for Jesus' arrival.

Ask:

- John said that asking for forgiveness and turning away from sin—doing wrong—is part of preparing for Jesus. Why do you think those things are important?

Invite another willing child to read aloud Mark 1:5-8.

Say: Baptism is a way to show you're ready for Jesus. During a baptism people are dipped under water to show that they're being cleansed of their sins. Even though Jesus never sinned, Jesus wanted to be baptized, too.

Now let's look at a passage from the book of Isaiah that gives clues about Jesus. Invite a willing child to read aloud Isaiah 40:1-5.

Ask:

- What about the passage from Isaiah gives hints about Jesus?
- From the descriptions of Jesus we've read, why do or don't you think you'd be able to recognize Jesus if you saw him?

Reading the Clues
Supplies

Bibles
CD player paper
colored pencils or markers construction paper
scissors
tape
Teacher Pack
CD: "Circus Music" (track 2)
"Clue" cards
Bible Timeline

Say: When people heard John talking about Jesus, they were very excited. They thought that a mighty warrior or powerful king was coming to save them. Imagine their surprise when Jesus, their Messiah, was born in a stable! Jesus didn't come as the people expected him to.

Maybe if they'd gathered clues before Jesus arrived they'd have recognized him more easily. Let's look at some Bible verses and create pictures with the clues about Jesus.

Have kids form three groups. Set out construction paper, colored pencils or markers, scissors, and tape. Give each group a Bible and a "Clue" card (title side up), and tell kids not to look at the cards yet.

Say: Each group will read the Bible passage or verse on your card and discuss what the clue about Jesus was. After you've identified the clue, create a picture that shows what the clue is. You can draw a picture, cut out shapes from construction paper to tape to your picture, or come up with any creative way you can think of to make your picture. Any questions? Answer any questions about the directions, and then allow kids five minutes to work.

Say: John the Baptist really wanted people to be ready for Jesus.

Ask:

- Why do you think it was important for John to help people be ready to meet Jesus?
- After reading the clues about Jesus, why do you think people were excited to hear he was coming?

Say: Believing in Jesus is the most important thing we can do. And we can prepare our hearts for him. This was something very important to John. In fact, he devoted his whole life to telling people about Jesus. But here's the thing: John was a little different than most people. Read aloud Mark 1:6.

Say: I'm going to play some funny music. As it plays, act like someone who's a little different than most people. You might talk with your teeth clenched, walk backward, or flip your hair in front of your face. Play "Circus Music" (track 2 on the CD), and let kids act strangely. When the music stops, have kids sit down.

Talk With Kids

Lead kids in this discussion.

Ask:

- What do you think John's unusual behavior showed about his message?
- After hearing John talk and seeing how he lived, what do you think was most important to him? Explain.
- What do you think it means to get ready for Jesus?

Say: ▶ WE PREPARE OUR HEARTS FOR JESUS by having the right attitude and being willing to let Jesus clean up our lives. When our hearts are ready, we can have a relationship with Jesus and grow closer to God, just as John said. Jesus wants to have a relationship with us because he loves us. Let's play a game to explore what it might mean to us to prepare our hearts for a relationship with Jesus.

3 WEAVING FAITH INTO LIFE

Guess Who's Coming

What You'll Do

Have kids return to their three groups from the previous activity. Have each group select a leader who will report back to the entire group.

Say: We've learned from the Bible that John gave clues to help people prepare for Jesus' coming. Pretend we have a very special guest coming for dinner. You don't know who the guest is, but you're going to figure that out with some clues.

I'll give you three clues, one at a time. After each clue, your group will have 30 seconds to come up with ideas about who you think the guest might be. Then I'll ask each group's leader to report what the group has decided. After we figure out who the special guest is, your group will decide what special preparations you'd need to make for this person. The person could be real or fictional.

Have kids sit together in their groups, and give each group a piece of paper and a pen.

Play three rounds of the game, giving the following clues in each round. Pause for 30 seconds after each clue to give groups a chance to figure out who it is. After 30 seconds, ask each leader to report quietly in your ear who his or her group thought was coming, and then continue with the next clue. When a group guesses the correct answer based on the clues you give about the guest, congratulate that group.

Then have groups make a list of things they'd need to do to prepare for this person to arrive. For example, for President Abraham Lincoln they might set the table for a nice banquet; for Eve they might make a fruit salad; and for Batman they could bring fast food from a restaurant that's open late. It's okay if groups come up with the same preparations. Repeat the process for the second and third guests in the following list.

Round One clues: The person 1) is tall; 2) is bearded; 3) was an American president. Answer: Abraham Lincoln Round Two clues: The person 1) is a woman; 2) disobeyed; 3) talked with a serpent. Answer: Eve Round Three clues: The person 1) wears a mask and costume; 2) is a man; 3) fights criminals at night from the shadows. Answer: Batman

When groups have come up with a list of preparations for the third guest, have them discuss these questions in their groups:

Ask:
- Why do we prepare differently for different guests?
- What clues would help you to know that your guest was going to be Jesus?

Distribute pens and this week's Bible Truth Sleuth pages, and have kids find the "Jesus Preparations" section. Say: Work with your group now to list things you would do if you knew Jesus was coming to visit you. You can either write your list or draw a picture of what you would do.

Give groups a few minutes to finish their lists or pictures, and then have the leader from each group share the group's ideas with everyone.

Talk With Kids

Lead kids in this discussion.

Ask:
- When Jesus comes into our lives, what can we do to prepare for him?
- Why do you think Jesus is worthy of such special preparation?

Say: When ▶ WE PREPARE OUR HEARTS FOR JESUS, we can examine the sin in our lives and decide we want to leave it behind and follow Jesus. In Psalm 51:10 David writes, "Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me." We can ask God to do that in our lives. In fact, I have a song we can sing about it as a prayer to God.

Say: Let's sing a song to help us remember this verse and make it a prayer to God. Pass out copies of the lyrics, and play "Create in Me a Pure Heart" (Psalm 51:10) (track 3 on the CD). Lead children in singing.

Create in me a pure heart, O God, O God,
And renew a steadfast spirit within me.
Create in me a pure heart, O God, O God,
And renew a steadfast spirit within me.
So I can be holy,
So I can be clean before you, Lord.

Ask:

- What do you think it means to have a pure heart?

Have children find the "Pure Heart" section on their Bible Truth Sleuth pages.

Say: Draw a picture of a heart, and then write one thing that helps make our hearts ready for Jesus.

Again play "Create in Me a Pure Heart" (Psalm 51:10) (track 3 on the CD) while the kids work.

Ask:

- Tell about the things you drew or wrote in the hearts on your Bible Truth Sleuth pages that'll help you get ready for Jesus.
- What can you do with your heart drawing to help you remember the ways you can get ready for Jesus?

Say: John the Baptist told the truth when he said Jesus was coming to be with the people. And if you ask Jesus to be your Savior, he's with you, too. He's in your life when you're at home, at school, with your family and friends—everywhere. And by doing what we've learned today about preparing our hearts, ▶ WE PREPARE OUR HEARTS FOR JESUS.

- Examine the sin in your life, and ask God to help you overcome the temptations to sin.
- Invite someone to church so he or she can experience a relationship with Jesus.
- Talk to your family about what it means to prepare your heart for Jesus as you begin preparing for Christmas.

Make sure you choose a Daily Challenge as well, and tell kids what you chose. Kids will be more inclined to follow through on their commitments when they see you doing the same.

Talk to your Director about emailing the FREE FamilyConnect to all your church's families. Available at group.com/digital.

Say: We're going to close our time with a prayer. I'll start the prayer, and then you'll find a partner and ask Jesus to help you turn away from sins this week. You can say a specific sin you'd like to turn from or just ask Jesus to help you change your heart. Then I'll end the prayer when partners have finished praying.
