The aim of ministry is to equip people to be both hearers and doers of God's Word.

Lifelong

Experiences transform the heart, moving faith beyond the walls of church and into everyday life for years to come.

The future of Sunday school + family ministry is NOW.

No doubt about it, the world is changing. Families used to go to church every week. Kids used to have longer attention spans. Teachers used to have more time to prepare. And didn't our budgets used to be bigger?

Even the Sunday school Bible curriculum you used just a couple of years ago is already out of date. But there's one thing that's never changed: the need to grow families closer to Jesus.

That's why we created FaithWeaver NOW®, and it's different from anything you've ever seen before!

It combines Sunday school with family ministry. ■■■■

Sure, you've seen Sunday school aimed at families. But FaithWeaver NOW actually hits the target by having everyone in the family learning about the same Scripture each week.

It's simpler and easier. ■■■■

Sometimes change is a wonderful thing. Gone are the days when you needed to spend hours preparing your lessons and hunting for supplies. FaithWeaver NOW will have you and your team ready to go in a snap.

It's made for NOW. ■■■■

Life is complicated and full of distractions. FaithWeaver NOW keeps faith on track through even the most frenzied lifestyles.

What makes FaithWeaver NOW the perfect curriculum for TODAY's church?

Solomon Tells of Jesus' Coming

Psalms 72:1-19

Your kids probably formed perceptions in their early childhood of who Jesus is and what he does. Although those perceptions may be accurate to a degree, they're probably not complete. Your kids are old enough to look at the Scriptures and develop a more complete understanding of who Jesus is. This lesson will help kids do this as they examine some prophecies about the great things Jesus would do and how he fulfilled those prophecies.

Solomon Tells of Jesus' Coming

Psalm 72:1-19

BIBLE BACKGROUND
FOR LEADERS

Writing Psalm 72

Some believe that Psalm 72 was written about Solomon and not by him. It is true that some elements of the psalm could well describe Solomon, but many elements describe a king whose actions go far beyond Solomon's capabilities. The early church believed that this psalm was written as a prayer for a king to come in the line of David and Solomon: the Messiah, Jesus. That's the approach taken in today's lesson.

The Psalmist Points Beyond Himself

Some elements of the psalm could indeed describe Solomon. He judged righteously and with great wisdom, as illustrated in the story of the two women who each claimed to be the mother of the same infant (1 Kings 3:16-28). He reigned over a prosperous kingdom, the wealthiest in Israel's history. He expanded the boundaries of the kingdom to encompass more territory than ever before. And he was sought by the queen of Sheba, who came to him bearing gifts.

However, much of this psalm points directly to the Messiah. Only Jesus' kingdom will truly extend to the ends of the earth (Psalm 72:8), and only to Jesus will all rulers eventually bow down (Psalm 72:11). There isn't a lot of biblical evidence that Solomon cared for the needy and afflicted (Psalm 72:12-14), but Jesus' life and ministry were characterized by such caring. And while the statement that all nations would be blessed through him (Psalm 72:17) could possibly refer to Solomon indirectly, it definitely refers to Jesus.

The Works of the Messiah

If Jesus is indeed the subject of Psalm 72, it is easy to answer the question: What does Jesus do? Jesus does amazing things for us! He takes care of the needy and their children, and he defeats oppressors (Psalm 72:4, 12-14). He lives forever, despite the fact that he died on the cross for us (Psalm 72:5). When he returns, Jesus will reign over the entire earth (Psalm 72:8). Surely he deserves from us the same kind of praise and honor given in verses 18 and 19!

The Jesus Connection

We've learned about many different facets of Jesus' life and ministry on earth. But let's never forget what Jesus has done for us. He is worthy of all our praise for that alone.

What's the first thing that comes to mind when you think about Jesus?

Who is Jesus to you? A teacher...a minister...a preacher...a martyr...a savior? Concentrate on the last one—savior. Spend two minutes prayerfully considering how Jesus is your Savior. You can write your prayer here.

1 GETTING STARTED

Occupation Options

What You'll Do ■■■■■■

Welcome kids warmly as they arrive, and ask them how their week went. Then have kids find a partner. Give each person a sheet of paper and some crayons.

Say: When you were a little kid, you probably had big ideas about what you wanted to be when you grew up. Maybe you wanted to be a princess or a pirate. Take a minute and draw something you wanted to be “when you grew up” when you were a little kid.

Give kids a few minutes to draw, and then have partners share their drawings with each other. Then gather everyone's attention and invite willing kids to share their drawings with the whole group.

Say: Let's look at the occupations you're interested in now. Even though you probably won't be a princess or a pirate, there's still a huge variety of different things you can do. Think of an occupation you'd like to have when you become an adult. Turn your pages over and draw and write a description of what a person in that occupation actually does. I'll give you a couple of minutes to draw and write.

After a couple of minutes, have kids share their chosen occupations with their partners. Encourage kids to be specific about what a person working in that occupation actually does. Then gather everyone's attention and invite willing kids to share their drawings and descriptions with the whole group.

Talk With Kids ■■■■

Lead kids in this discussion.

Ask:

- How do you know what the people who work in these occupations actually do?
- How important is the work they do for others?
- What great things have people in these occupations accomplished?

Say: All these people are important, and they accomplish important things, but there's one person who's more important than anyone else, and that's Jesus! Jesus does lots of important things for us. Today we're going to see what Jesus does, and to do that, we're going to look at a part of the Bible that was written before Jesus ever came to earth! Before he was born, people knew that ► JESUS DOES GREAT THINGS, and we're going to see what a difference that makes in our lives.

2 BIBLE EXPLORATION

Jesus' Roles

What You'll Do

Say: The Bible contains different types of writings. One kind of writing is called prophecy, in which God had people write about events that would happen in the future. In a minute we're going to look at a psalm that was most likely written by King Solomon. This psalm is a prophecy about Jesus.

Distribute Bibles, and have kids look up Psalm 72:1-19. Have kids form pairs, and then give kids pens and have them find the "Digging Into the Bible" section on their Bible Buzz page.

Say: We're going to imagine we're archaeologists and that we've just uncovered this Scripture. You've never heard of Jesus before, and you're going to carefully examine these verses by following the instructions on your Bible Buzz page.

Allow kids several minutes to complete this activity, and then gather everyone's attention and ask for insights from each pair.

Talk With Kids

Lead kids in this discussion.

Ask:

- What were the most common roles we found?
- What surprises you about Jesus' roles?
- How does this list compare to or differ from what you knew about Jesus?

Say: From this Bible passage, we've learned about some of the many great things that Jesus does, some of which may have even surprised us. Jesus loves us and desires to have a relationship with each of us. We can trust that he has wonderful plans for our lives, and we can look forward to seeing how ► JESUS DOES GREAT THINGS in each of our lives! Knowing that, let's see how we can respond to Jesus.

Because of What He Does

What You'll Do

Say: Because Jesus has done so much for us, we can trust him and worship him in all we do.

Have kids form groups of three or four. Have each group pick one of the things Jesus does that they listed on the Bible Buzz page. Each group will develop a brief worship experience based on that one role Jesus plays. For example, groups could choose to lead the group in a song about Jesus, creatively read a Scripture passage about the ways Jesus cares for the needy, write a prayer and lead the group in it, or create a cheer about the marvelous deeds Jesus does.

Say: Use the “Worship Experience” section on your Bible Buzz page to outline what you want to do to lead the rest of the group in worship.

Give kids about five minutes to prepare their style of worship, and then have everyone participate in each group’s worship style.

Pass out copies of the lyrics, and play “Jesus Is All the World to Me” (track 3 on the CD). After they listen once, have kids sing along and do the motions if they are comfortable doing so.

Jesus is all the world to me: (raise hands)
My life, my joy, my all. (hug yourself)
He is my strength from day to day; (flex arm muscles)
Without him I would fall. (arms fall to side)
When I am sad, to him I go. (sad face)
No other one can cheer me so. (happy face)
When I am sad, (sad face)
He makes me glad; (happy face)
He’s my friend. (hug yourself)

(Repeat 2x.)

Talk With Kids ■■■■

Lead kids in this discussion.

Ask:

- What did you learn about worship in the experiences?
- Why is Jesus worthy of worship?
- What can we do to increase our desire to worship?

Say: Jesus is worthy of our praise, because ► JESUS DOES GREAT THINGS. That’s something to celebrate and thank him for. As Christmas approaches, we tend to hear a lot about people worshipping Jesus as a baby, but we’ve had a chance to worship him here today for who he is now and for all he does for us.

3 WEAVING FAITH INTO LIFE

Mediator Madness

What You'll Do ■■■■■■

Say: Jesus does a lot of different things—great things—for us, just as Solomon prophesied he would. One of the biggest things he does for us is the one mentioned in our Key Verse.

Have kids find the Key Verse, 1 Timothy 2:5, on their Bible Buzz page, and read it aloud together: “For there is one God and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus.”

Say: We’re going to play a game right now to explore what it means to be a mediator.

Have kids form trios. Within each trio, have kids choose a Creator, an Artist, and a Mediator. Send all the Artists to one end of the room, and give them paper and markers. Send the Creators and Mediators to the opposite end of the room.

Say: Each of you has a task. Creators, think of a picture you’d like your Artist to draw. Tell your Mediator one step at a time what the Artist should draw on the paper. Then your Mediator will run and deliver the news to your Artist and tell him or her one thing to draw. Mediators, after giving one instruction to your Artist, return to your Creator for another instruction. Then repeat the process. You’ll have three minutes to complete your picture.

After about five minutes, have groups show what they’ve created.

Talk With Kids ■■■■

Lead kids in this discussion.

Ask:

- In this game, what did the Mediators do?
- How is this like what Jesus does as a mediator?
- How is what Jesus does different from what the Mediators did in this game?
- What makes Jesus’ role as a mediator important?

Say: Jesus is the only mediator between God and us. Jesus came to earth as a baby, lived a sinless life, preached and taught about God, and died for our sins. Because he died for our sins, we can receive forgiveness and have a relationship with God through Jesus. ► JESUS DOES GREAT THINGS, and one of those great things mentioned in today’s psalm is his role as mediator between humans and God.

Daily Challenges

What You'll Do

Say: Let's think about how we can remember that ► JESUS DOES GREAT THINGS this week this week.

Ask kids to find this week's Daily Challenges on their Bible Buzz page and choose one to do this week. They can choose one or more of these three options:

- Set aside time this week to reflect upon the great things Jesus is doing in your life. Commit to making it the first thing you think about in the morning and the last thing you think about at night.
- Make some time each day to simply talk to Jesus. Ask him for the things that are on your heart, and ask Jesus to help you see the great things he has planned for your life.
- Come up with a way you can give Jesus thanks for his love for you. Journal, write a poem, talk to yourself—whatever you want—just reflect for an hour or so on Jesus' love for you. Then take time to thank him for his incredible love.

Make sure you choose a Daily Challenge as well, and tell the kids what you chose. Kids will be more inclined to follow through on their commitments when they see you doing the same.

Talk With Kids

Ask:

- What's a practical way you're going to do your Daily Challenge? Share a time, a place, or other ideas. Allow time.

Say: Today we've looked at how ► JESUS DOES GREAT THINGS. Many years before Jesus was born, Solomon gave several prophecies about all the great things Jesus would do. Let's follow through with our Daily Challenges to see for ourselves the great things Jesus does in our lives.

Weaving Faith at Home

Send the parent letters home with your kids or give them to parents when they pick up their children. This is a great way to show families they're important to your church and to support their role as spiritual leaders to their children.

Encourage kids to talk with their parents about the Daily Challenges they chose and what they learned about how Jesus does great things. Kids can also do the activities in the "HomeConnect" section of their Bible Buzz page with their families.

Talk to your Director about emailing the FREE FamilyConnect to all your church's families. Available at group.com/digital.

Take a couple of minutes to pray with your kids, thanking Jesus for the great things he did while he was on earth. Ask him to open your kids' eyes to the great things he's doing today.
