Relational

Person-to-person interaction enhances spiritual growth and builds Christian friendships.

Experiential

What we experience through action and discussion sticks with us up to 9 times longer than what we simply hear or read.

Applicable

The aim of ministry is to equip people to be both hearers and doers of God's Word.

Lifelong

Experiences transform the heart, moving faith beyond the walls of church and into everyday life for years to come.

We do, too!

That's why we attempt to ensure that all crafts, toys, and gizmos meet or exceed national safety standards—and are produced by manufacturers that don't use child labor or abuse their labor force. You can order Group resources knowing that in addition to caring for your kids, you're also caring for children elsewhere.

Let's keep kids safe!

We strive to provide products that are mechanically reliable and hold together during normal, intended usage. Items are also checked for flammability, and both paint and surface coatings are checked for heavy metals—including lead.

You can help your children stay safe by seeing that toys and gizmos are used as designed, for the purposes designed, and that any broken pieces are disposed of promptly and properly. We value your feedback. If you become aware of a problem affecting the safety of any of our products, please inform us immediately.

That's why we created FaithWeaver NOW®, and it's different from anything you've ever seen before!

It combines Sunday school with family ministry. ■■■■

Solomon Tells of Jesus' Coming

Psalm 72:1-19

As young children observe their parents and other adults, they believe that adults can do anything. As children mature, they will begin to lose this sense of awe. Now is the perfect time to instill in little ones a lasting sense of wonder about Jesus by communicating our enduring admiration and enthusiasm about what he does and who he is.

Solomon Tells of Jesus' Coming

Psalm 72:1-19

BIBLE BACKGROUND
FOR LEADERS

Writing Psalm 72

Some believe that Psalm 72 was written about Solomon and not by him. It is true that some elements of the psalm could well describe Solomon, but many elements describe a king whose actions go far beyond Solomon's capabilities. The early church believed that this psalm was written as a prayer for a king to come in the line of David and Solomon: the Messiah, Jesus. That's the approach taken in today's lesson.

The Psalmist Points Beyond Himself

Some elements of the psalm could indeed describe Solomon. He judged righteously and with great wisdom, as illustrated in the story of the two women who each claimed to be the mother of the same infant (1 Kings 3:16-28). He reigned over a prosperous kingdom, the wealthiest in Israel's history. He expanded the boundaries of the kingdom to encompass more territory than ever before. And he was sought by the queen of Sheba, who came to him bearing gifts.

However, much of this psalm points directly to the Messiah. Only Jesus' kingdom will truly extend to the ends of the earth (Psalm 72:8), and only to Jesus will all rulers eventually bow down (Psalm 72:11). There isn't a lot of biblical evidence that Solomon cared for the needy and afflicted (Psalm 72:12-14), but Jesus' life and ministry were characterized by such caring. And while the statement that all nations would be blessed through him (Psalm 72:17) could possibly refer to Solomon indirectly, it definitely refers to Jesus.

The Works of the Messiah

If Jesus is indeed the subject of Psalm 72, it is easy to answer the question: What does Jesus do? Jesus does amazing things for us! He takes care of the needy and their children, and he defeats oppressors (Psalm 72:4, 12-14). He lives forever, despite the fact that he died on the cross for us (Psalm 72:5). When he returns, Jesus will reign over the entire earth (Psalm 72:8). Surely he deserves from us the same kind of praise and honor given in verses 18 and 19!

The Jesus Connection

We've learned about many different facets of Jesus' life and ministry on earth. But let's never forget what Jesus has done for us. He is worthy of all our praise for that alone.

What's the first thing that comes to mind when you think about Jesus?

Who is Jesus to you? A teacher...a minister...a preacher...a martyr...a savior? Concentrate on the last one—savior. Spend two minutes prayerfully considering how Jesus is your Savior. You can write your prayer here.

We learned that Jesus takes care of hurting people. Let's put bandages on our scepters to remind us. Give children each a bandage or two, and help kids apply the bandages to their scepters. We learned that Jesus shows love to people. Growing With Jesus

Wide-Eyed Wonder

As young children watch their parents and other adults, they may feel that adults can do anything. As children mature they will lose this sense of awe. However, we can increase a child's sense of wonder at what Jesus does by communicating admiration and enthusiasm as we tell Bible stories about Jesus.

Your child learned that God helps us just as he helped David and gave him a crown (from Psalm 72:1-19). Your child participated in one of the following activities today. You can do these activities with your child to help your child grow with Jesus throughout the week.

INFANT

Shine

Dim the room lights, and let your baby play with a small, pen-sized flashlight. Help your baby point the beam of light around the room.

Say: The Bible says that the great things that Jesus does will last as long as the sun. This flashlight gives us light like the sun does.

TODDLER

All in a Day's Work

Say: Jesus does great things. Read the following list, and do the motions in the parentheses with your child:

Jesus is a good and loving king. (hug your toddler)

Jesus takes care of people who are sad or hurt. (pat your toddler)

Jesus helps people stop fighting. (hug your toddler)

Everyone can sing happy songs to Jesus. (sing "Jesus Loves Me")

2-YEAR-OLD

Homage

Say: Lots of people brought Jesus gifts. We can bring Jesus gifts, too.

Encourage your child to find a prized toy or stuffed animal. Then have your child follow as you march around the room. Then stop and have your child set down the prized item. Say: We can bring our gifts to Jesus.

Help your child become a FaithWeaver with these ideas:

- Take your child along as you donate items such as food, money, or clothing. Tell your child that sharing what we have is just like giving Jesus gifts.
- Let your child pretend to be the "king of the house." Make a simple crown for him or her to wear. Explain that Jesus is our king who does great things.
