We do, too!

That's why we attempt to ensure that all crafts, toys, and gizmos meet or exceed national safety standards—and are produced by manufacturers that don't use child labor or abuse their labor force. You can order Group resources knowing that in addition to caring for your kids, you're also caring for children elsewhere.

Let's keep kids safe!

We strive to provide products that are mechanically reliable and hold together during normal, intended usage. Items are also checked for flammability, and both paint and surface coatings are checked for heavy metals—including lead. You can help your children stay safe by seeing that toys and gizmos are used as designed, for the purposes designed, and that any broken pieces are disposed of promptly and properly. We value your feedback. If you become aware of a problem affecting the safety of any of our products, please inform us immediately.

The future of Sunday school + family ministry is NOW.

No doubt about it, the world is changing. Families used to go to church every week. Kids used to have longer attention spans. Teachers used to have more time to prepare. And didn't our budgets used to be bigger?

Even the Sunday school Bible curriculum you used just a couple of years ago is already out of date. But there's one thing that's never changed: the need to grow families closer to Jesus.

That's why we created FaithWeaver NOW®, and it's different from anything you've ever seen before!

It combines Sunday school with family ministry. ■■■■

Sure, you've seen Sunday school aimed at families. But FaithWeaver NOW actually hits the target by having everyone in the family learning about the same Scripture each week.

It's simpler and easier. ■■■■

Sometimes change is a wonderful thing. Gone are the days when you needed to spend hours preparing your lessons and hunting for supplies. FaithWeaver NOW will have you and your team ready to go in a snap.

It's made for NOW. ■■■■

Life is complicated and full of distractions. FaithWeaver NOW keeps faith on track through even the most frenzied lifestyles.

Time is a concept infants and toddlers aren't yet able to grasp. But young children can understand anticipation and wanting things to happen now. As you explore this lesson together, express your anticipation for Jesus' arrival. Little ones will join in your excitement as you get ready for the celebration of Jesus' birth.

John the Baptist Prepares the Way for Jesus

Mark 1:1-8

BIBLE BACKGROUND
FOR LEADERS

Jesus Brings Good News

Mark saw Jesus' life, ministry, death, and resurrection as the beginning of the gospel. The word gospel, derived from the Old English godspel, means "good news."

Prophets Foretold About Jesus

As Mark began his Gospel, he launched into a quotation from the Old Testament. By connecting what he was saying about Jesus with the words of the prophets, Mark built validity for his own message in the minds of his Jewish readers.

Some question why Mark said the quotation is from Isaiah when in reality the first part is from Malachi 3:1. Mark is mentioning together two quotations on the same topic, and crediting both to Isaiah would have been acceptable for Mark's audience.

By using the quotation from Isaiah in Mark 1:3, Mark emphasized the kingly nature of Jesus. In those days, a servant often traveled ahead of a king to alert people that the king was coming.

John the Baptist Comes Before Jesus

The last half of this passage shows that John the Baptist did what was prophesied in the Old Testament: He came to prepare the way—more specifically, the people—for Jesus’ coming. As people repented in response to John’s preaching and confessed their sins, their hearts were prepared to accept their coming King.

John the Baptist's choice of clothing was not accidental: He likely was identifying himself with the prophet Elijah, who dressed the same way (2 Kings 1:8). His was the clothing of the poor, and his food was also that of the very poor. John was humbling himself, knowing how great the coming Jesus would be. In those days, it was the job of the lowest servant to untie a visitor's sandals and wash his feet. John let people know that as eloquent and persuasive as his preaching might be, he was the lowest of the low in comparison with the glory of the coming Savior, Jesus.

The Jesus Connection

At Christmas, we anticipate the birth of Jesus. His birth, death, and resurrection make our lives in heaven possible. There is always much to do before Christmas. But Jesus cares more about our hearts than about gifts and decorations. We can prepare our hearts by turning from actions and attitudes that distract us from Jesus. What do you need to turn from? You can write your prayer here.

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines, typical of notebook paper. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

GETTING STARTED

Tip Don't know the melodies to the songs in this guide? Download the 99-cent Kids Songs app by Alkeo and play the tunes for 200+ common children's songs.

Sing and Celebrate

What You'll Do

Sing "Jesus Is With Us" (track 3 on the CD) to the tune of "Ten Little Indians" anytime during the lesson. Sing as you play the suggested games, as you change infants, and as you hold and rock them. Infants enjoy hearing your voice, and they'll begin to become familiar with the word Jesus.

 Where, oh where, oh where is Jesus?
Where, oh where, oh where is Jesus?
Where, oh where, oh where is Jesus?
Jesus is with us.

Let's get ready, get ready for Jesus.
Let's get ready, get ready for Jesus.
Let's get ready, get ready for Jesus.
He is coming soon.

(Repeat first verse.)

Afterward, say: ► WE GET READY FOR JESUS.

Sing "Thank You for Jesus!" (not on the CD) to the tune of "Did You Ever See a Lassie?" Give babies gentle hugs and tell them Jesus was born. Tell babies that we thank God they were born, too!

 Thank you, God, for baby Jesus,
Baby Jesus, baby Jesus.
Thank you, God, for baby Jesus.
We're glad he was born!

Afterward, say: ► WE GET READY FOR JESUS.

Closer to Jesus

What You'll Do ■■■■■■

Lay a baby on the floor on his or her tummy. Move a short distance away, and hold the “Baby Jesus” teaching picture on the floor for the baby to see. Move the picture closer and closer while repeating the following chant:

Let's get ready; here he comes!
Baby Jesus shows God's love!

Pick up the baby, and hug him or her.

For crawlers, hold the picture on the floor. Say: Come to Jesus, [name of infant]. Then recite the chant, and hug the baby when he or she comes within your reach. Say: ► WE GET READY FOR JESUS.

Here Comes Jesus!

What You'll Do ■■■■■■

Have the baby sit on your lap, facing you. Place a napkin over your head, partially covering your face. Say: Get ready for Jesus. Pull the napkin off your head. He's coming to love [name of infant]!

For added fun, let the baby pull the napkin off your head while you say: Jesus is coming to love [name of infant]!

Growing With Jesus

Anticipation

Young children don't understand the concept of time. So don't be discouraged if your child doesn't demonstrate building anticipation for Christmas yet. Rather, help your child enjoy the many aspects of the Christmas traditions your family celebrates by involving him or her as much as possible in each individual event. Plus, talk about your own excitement for the coming celebration of Jesus' birth.

Your child learned that we get ready for Jesus (from Mark 1:1-8). Your child participated in one of the following activities today. You can use these activities with your child to help your child grow with Jesus throughout the week.

INFANT

Here Comes Jesus!

Have your baby sit on your lap, facing you. Place a napkin over your head, partially covering your face.

Say: Get ready for Jesus.
Pull the napkin off your head. He's coming to love [name of infant]!

For added fun, let your baby pull the napkin off your head while you say: "Jesus is coming to love [name of infant]!"

TODDLER

Something Special

Help your toddler build a baby bed with blocks. Place blankets, dolls or stuffed animals, and other baby items in the bed. Lead your child in this finger play:

We can get ready, (pat the baby bed)
For a special little one.
A baby named Jesus,
(continue rocking the baby)
He's God's own Son!
(point up)

2-YEAR-OLD

Get Ready for Baby

Hide baby items around the room.

Lead your child on a scavenger hunt for things you might need for a baby. Once your child finds the items, talk about how you use the items.

Say: Jesus came to earth as a baby. We get ready for Jesus.

Use these ideas to help your child become a FaithWeaver:

- Include your child each day in your preparations for celebrating Jesus' birth.
- Sing this verse from "Jesus Is With Us" (to the tune of "Ten Little Indians"):
Let's get ready, get ready for Jesus.
Let's get ready, get ready for Jesus.
Let's get ready, get ready for Jesus.
He is coming soon.
- Get out your child's baby book, and talk about how you got ready for his or her birth.
