* Due to the way Christmas falls, we recommend shifting lessons as needed so Lesson 3 lines up with Christmas.

The future of Sunday school + family ministry is NOW.

No doubt about it, the world is changing. Families used to go to church every week. Kids used to have longer attention spans. Teachers used to have more time to prepare. And didn't our budgets used to be bigger?

Even the Sunday school Bible curriculum you used just a couple of years ago is already out of date. But there's one thing that's never changed: the need to grow families closer to Jesus.

That's why we created FaithWeaver NOW®, and it's different from anything you've ever seen before!

It combines Sunday school with family ministry.

Sure, you've seen Sunday school aimed at families. But FaithWeaver NOW actually hits the target by having everyone in the family learning about the same Scripture each week.

John the Baptist Prepares the Way for Jesus Mark 1:1-8

Middle school students are at the most vulnerable stage of their lives in terms of peer pressure. They're trying to find their identity along with a sense of acceptance and belonging, and they typically look for this from their peers. As a result, they may need to prepare their hearts for Jesus by recognizing ways peer pressure has led them to sin. As you lead this study, help students understand that true acceptance and belonging comes through a relationship with Jesus.

John the Baptist Prepares the Way for Jesus

Mark 1:1-8

BIBLE BACKGROUND FOR LEADERS

Jesus Brings Good News

Mark saw Jesus' life, ministry, death, and resurrection as the beginning of the gospel. The word gospel, derived from the Old English godspel, means "good news."

Prophets Foretold About Jesus

As Mark began his Gospel, he launched into a quotation from the Old Testament. By connecting what he was saying about Jesus with the words of the prophets, Mark built validity for his own message in the minds of his Jewish readers.

Some question why Mark said the quotation is from Isaiah when in reality the first part is from Malachi 3:1. Mark is mentioning together two quotations on the same topic, and crediting both to Isaiah would have been acceptable for Mark's audience.

By using the quotation from Isaiah in Mark 1:3, Mark emphasized the kingly nature of Jesus. In those days, a servant often traveled ahead of a king to alert people that the king was coming.

John the Baptist Comes Before Jesus

The last half of this passage shows that John the Baptist did what was prophesied in the Old Testament: He came to prepare the way—more specifically, the people—for Jesus' coming. As people repented in response to John's preaching and confessed their sins, their hearts were prepared to accept their coming King.

John the Baptist's choice of clothing was not accidental: He likely was identifying himself with the prophet Elijah, who dressed the same way (2 Kings 1:8). His was the clothing of the poor, and his food was also that of the very poor. John was humbling himself, knowing how great the coming Jesus would be. In those days, it was the job of the lowest servant to untie a visitor's sandals and wash his feet. John let people know that as eloquent and persuasive as his preaching might be, he was the lowest of the low in comparison with the glory of the coming Savior, Jesus.

The Jesus Connection

At Christmas, we anticipate the birth of Jesus. His birth, death, and resurrection make our lives in heaven possible. There is always much to do before Christmas. But Jesus cares more about our hearts than about gifts and decorations. We can prepare our hearts by turning from actions and attitudes that distract us from Jesus. What do you need to turn from? You can write your prayer here.

1 FAITH CONNECTION

Washed Up

What You'll Do

Say: I'm glad you're here! Let's start with a messy game!

Begin by giving each person a handful of Cheetos, Doritos, or another messy snack. No bowls or plate are needed; the object is for students' hands to be covered in cheesy residue.

After students finish their snacks, pour a little bit of vegetable oil onto each student's hands, and then have students rub the oil around.

Finally, invite students to enjoy a refreshing cup of water after their snacks. It should be very difficult for students to pick up and drink from the cups with their cheesy, slippery hands.

Hand out wet wipes so students can clean their hands, and then give students clean cups of water.

Talk With Students

Lead students in this discussion.

Ask:

- Was it hard for you to satisfy your thirst? Why or why not? What stopped you from getting the water you wanted?
- What kinds of things are you "thirsty" for in life? What might really satisfy your deepest wants and needs?
- When have you felt like something stood in the way of your needs being satisfied?

Say: When life makes us thirsty, sometimes we look to God for help. Our sin—all the ways we fail to live life God's way—can make us feel dirty or guilty and get in the way of our dependence on God. Today we'll talk about how we can feel clean, and we'll explore how ▶ WE PREPARE OUR HEARTS FOR JESUS.

Many movie clips are available at youtube.com.

What You'll Do

Instead of the "Washed Up" activity, show a clip from Alvin and the Chipmunks (2007) to illustrate the importance of adequate cleaning. Begin the clip at 00:31:53, when Dave says, "Okay, guys, let me just put it to you like this." In this clip, Dave frantically rushes to get food for a date while the chipmunks clean his house. End the clip at 00:33:59, when Alvin says, "Aw, what a buzzkill, man!"

Talk With Students

Lead students in this discussion.

Ask:

- What do you think about the way the chipmunks cleaned the house?
- Did this scene remind you at all of the way you clean your room? Explain.
- Tell about a time you had to rush to prepare for a visitor.
- When have you made your life look clean on the outside, when really you had a mess in your heart (like dirty socks in the fridge)?

Say: Our sin—all the ways we fail to live life the way God wants us to—can make us feel dirty or guilty. And we can never really get our lives clean on our own. We can make it look as clean as Dave's house did—but really all we can do is hide our mess. Today we'll talk about how ▶ WE PREPARE OUR HEARTS FOR JESUS, and how he can clean up the mess in our lives.

2 BIBLE EXPLORATION

Copying the Word

What You'll Do

Say: Before Jesus began his ministry on earth, God sent John the Baptist to prepare people's hearts. John the Baptist let people know they hadn't measured up to God's law. Let's study God's message and get a feel for it at the same time.

Give each student a Bible, paper, and a pen. Ask students to quickly copy Mark 1:1-8 on the paper. Now ask them to write the passage again, this time by carefully tracing the letters of the text using the copies of the "Copying the Word" handout.

Talk With Students

Lead students in this discussion.

- Compare how you felt writing the verses without tracing them to copying the verses by tracing the handout.
- What are some of the differences between the traced copy and the handwritten copy?
- Which one looks most like the original text? Why?
- How was our tracing like or unlike someone trying to be perfect?

Invite someone to read aloud Mark 1:4.

Ask:
- What does repentance mean?
- How can the desire to turn your life around show you why you need God?

Invite someone to read aloud Mark 1:7-8.

Ask:
- How did John the Baptist prepare people for Jesus?

Say: Let's think about how prepared we are for Jesus. Hand out the Bible Trek pages, and have students write answers to the questions in the "Think It Over" section.

Say: John the Baptist told people that no one had lived their lives as well as God wanted them to. God wanted great things for his children; God wanted their lives to be perfect! However, people fell short of what God wanted for them. It's like they tried to write the law in their own handwriting instead. John the Baptist preached a challenging message that made people aware of their sins. As a result, they desired forgiveness for their failures. Repentance made them realize they couldn't clean up their lives on their own. They needed God and we do, too. ▶ WE PREPARE OUR HEARTS FOR JESUS by recognizing the sin in our lives. Then we can bring our hearts to him to clean up.

Choose Your Own Adventure Easy Prep

Set out the supplies for each adventure at different stations.

What You'll Do

Say: In our adventures today, we have two activities you can choose from. Adventure 1 uses reflection, and Adventure 2 uses map-making. The directions are on your Bible Trek papers. Look them over and decide which activity you want to do. You can work with the others who choose the same activity. Allow time for students to decide which adventure they want to do. Summaries of the adventures follow.

ADVENTURE 1—REFLECTION: CLEAN HANDS
In this adventure, students will write sins on their hands and then wash them off.

ADVENTURE 2—MAP-MAKING: IN MY HEART
In this adventure, students will draw floor plans of their hearts as if they are homes.

Say: After you finish your adventure, you'll present some of what you experienced, so keep that in mind. When everyone has finished, we'll talk about what we've learned. You have 15 minutes to complete your adventures. Move between the stations, and offer assistance as needed. Let groups know when they have about five minutes left so they can wrap up their work.

After 15 minutes, have groups take turns presenting what they experienced.

Talk With Students

Lead students in this discussion.

Ask:

- What do you feel challenged to do in order to prepare your heart for Jesus?
- How much preparation is really needed for Jesus to work in your life?
- What difference does it make to have Jesus at work in your life?

Say: Some people believe that before they can have a relationship with Jesus, they need to get their lives all cleaned up. But that wasn't the point of John the Baptist's message. He wanted people to understand forgiveness and repentance so they could see how much they needed God to clean up their lives! If we try to be perfect before we come to Jesus, we'll never be ready! But ▶ WE PREPARE OUR HEARTS FOR JESUS by humbly recognizing that we need him to clean up our lives.

What You'll Do

Say: Let's read today's Key Verse, Psalm 51:10. Invite someone to read Psalm 51:10 aloud: "Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me."

Say: Here's a new way to remember a verse from the Bible. Distribute supplies and have students write out the verse on index cards and decorate the cards. Then they should put the cards in resealable plastic bags. Have each student use a hole punch to put a hole in one corner of the plastic bag above the zipper and loop a piece of string through the hole. This virtually waterproof verse-ornament can then be hung from a shower head. Each morning students will be reminded to ask God to create new hearts in them as they are being physically cleaned! If students share a shower with their parents, have them prepare what they're going to tell their parents about what the verse means.

Talk With Students

Lead students in this discussion

Ask:

- Why might someone ask God to give him or her a clean heart?
- Why might this be an important part of getting ready to meet Jesus?

Say: John's message was to get ready for Jesus to make us clean. Now you and the people in your family can think about your need to have clean hearts while you clean the rest of you! Remember that we don't have to be perfect in order to meet God. We need only to recognize our need to be clean, and that's how ▶ WE PREPARE OUR HEARTS FOR JESUS.

What You'll Do

Direct students to the Daily Challenges in their Bible Trek pages and to choose one to do this week. They can choose one or more of these three options:

- Spend time in prayer, telling Jesus about the ways you don't measure up and asking him for his help.
- When you do your chores, pray about areas of your life God wants you to let him clean up.
- Write your own psalm of repentance, using Psalm 51 as a model.

Lead students in this discussion

Ask:

- What's a practical way you're going to do your Daily Challenge? Include a time, place, and other ideas.

Say: God sent John the Baptist as a special messenger to prepare the way for Jesus. Let's remember that ▶ WE PREPARE OUR HEARTS FOR JESUS as we follow through with our Daily Challenges this week.

Copying the Word

The beginning of the gospel about Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

It is written in Isaiah the prophet:

"I will send my messenger ahead of you,
who will prepare your way"—
"a voice of one calling in the desert,
'Prepare the way for the Lord,
make straight paths for him.' "

And so John the Baptist came, baptizing in the desert region and preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. The whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem went out to him. Confessing their sins, they were baptized by him in the Jordan River. John wore clothing made of camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. And this was his message: "After me will come one more powerful than I, the thongs of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and untie. I baptize you with water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."
