Group resources really work!

This Group resource incorporates our R.E.A.L. approach to ministry. It reinforces a growing friendship with Jesus, encourages long-term learning, and results in life transformation, because it's:

Relational

Person-to-person interaction enhances spiritual growth and builds Christian friendships.

Experiential

What we experience through action and discussion sticks with us up to 9 times longer than what we simply hear or read.

Applicable

The aim of ministry is to equip people to be both hearers and doers of God's Word.

Lifelong

Experiences transform the heart, moving faith beyond the walls of church and into everyday life for years to come.

Dear Parents,

Your family is important to our church, and we want to support your role as spiritual leader to your child.

In our effort to provide the highest quality Christian education, we are using FaithWeaver NOW® Sunday school. FaithWeaver NOW makes Bible learning fun by using a variety of active experiences to help students learn in the ways they learn best.

FaithWeaver NOW also helps people of all ages “weave faith into life” by applying the Bible to their lives throughout every week. With FaithWeaver NOW, students walk through the Bible over the course of three years.

Research shows that the most powerful influence on children’s faith development is the conversation about faith that takes place in the home. We want to partner with you in your child’s Christian education.

With the resources that are part of FaithWeaver NOW, you can make a huge contribution to your child’s Christian growth by leading activities and discussions that help make connections and apply what’s learned at church to daily life. That’s why every week your child will receive a take-home page that includes ideas for family discussions and activities that will help cement what your child learns at church.

All FaithWeaver NOW resources—for infants through adults—explore the same Bible passage each week, making it easier for you to help your family grow in faith together.

This quarter, we hope you’ll find encouragement in your role as a parent and a spiritual leader to your child. May these tools serve to remind you how important you are in your child’s life—and how blessed you are to be entrusted with this awesome responsibility!

God bless you,

Your FaithWeaver NOW Church

Bringing It Home

Read this quote with your family, and then talk it over.

“With a strong belief in God and yourself, truly all things are possible.”

—KURT WARNER, ALL THINGS POSSIBLE

- Explain whether you agree or disagree with this quote.
- How can your faith in God affect your life, including your hopes and goals for the future?
- What would it mean for you to rely on God completely?

Try This

Create a sort of “traveling trophy” with your family. It could be an old trophy cup or even just a cool-looking decoration or dish your family has. It should symbolize the times your family members rely on God no matter how difficult! The award should change hands several times throughout the week—passed along every time a family member is “caught” living out the kind of reliance and trust you know God is pleased with.

Daily Challenge

- Find other verses in the Bible that remind you that God is always there for us and that we can always rely on him. Write them down and keep them where you can look at them when you need them.

- Think of more ways you can invite God into your everyday life. You could pray before every test, project, practice, or important event and ask God to help you through it.

- Have that conversation with the friend or family member that you know God’s been wanting you to have, let God guide you with what to say, and then trust him with whatever happens.

BIBLE TREK STUDY 1

BIBLE POINT: We can rely on God.

KEY VERSE: "God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble."—Psalm 46:1

David Becomes King

2 Samuel 5:1-5; Psalm 37

Imagine the headlines: "Football-Lovers' Dream: Boy Single-handedly Defeats the Lions, the Bears, and the Giants!"... "King Saul Goes Berserk—Dr. Phil to the Rescue"..."Stars and Swipes—The Bid for King gets Uh-gly."

A no-name kid from the sticks had become a national celebrity, a beloved king with more power, fame, and riches than he could have imagined. Yet it wasn't his good looks that captured people's attention, or his privileged upbringing that caused them to take notice. It wasn't even perfect judgment or flawless instincts that made him a heroic role model. What was King David's secret to success? He sought God. No matter what situation David found himself in, he relied on God to see him through.

People around you—other students at your school, perhaps—may seem really ambitious. They may spend all their time and energy trying to be important and successful, but that road is a dead end. Instead, we should pour our energy into seeking God and relying on him alone.

• What things do you hope to achieve in life? Why?

• How has God been worthy of your trust in the past?

• How can you rely on God to move your life in the right direction?

"I will say of the Lord, 'He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust' "
—Psalm 91:2.

Here's What You Need to Do...

1. TO START OFF...

Say hi to the other people in your group. Then with your group, follow the rest of the instructions for your adventure!

2. HIT THE BOOK.

Read 2 Samuel 5:1-5 and Psalm 37 aloud in your group. Briefly talk about anything that jumps out at you from the passages.

3. PEN TO PAPER...

Form smaller groups of three or four, and work with your group to write your own song for King David's coronation. Be prepared for stardom as you'll soon present your masterpiece!

4. TALK TIME...

When your song is finished and before the class is reunited, spend some time thinking about TV shows that choose a winner based on talent, good looks, and so on.

- How are winners usually chosen in our culture?

- What things do you think God considers when choosing his "winners"? Why?

- From reading the passages, what do you think God has in store for people who rely completely on him?

that David is a great candidate for king. Think about class elections from your school, and campaign like you would for that.

4. SHOW OFF.

Now decide how you will present your campaign.

- What qualities made David a standout to be a good king?

- From reading these passages, what “criteria” might God have for people? What does he value?

- What do you think God has in store for people who rely completely on him?

The FaithWeaver NOW Student Book is woven into every lesson to provide an essential transformative experience that makes the Bible unforgettable.

BONUS...every Student Book includes weekly take-home activities!
