The future of Sunday school + family ministry is NOW.

No doubt about it, the world is changing. Families used to go to church every week. Kids used to have longer attention spans. Teachers used to have more time to prepare. And didn't our budgets used to be bigger?

Even the Sunday school Bible curriculum you used just a couple of years ago is already out of date. But there's one thing that's never changed: the need to grow families closer to Jesus.

That's why we created FaithWeaver NOW®, and it's different from anything you've ever seen before!

Welcome to the FaithWeaver NOW Parent Handbook!

First of all, thank you for everything you do as parents. The fact that you're reading this shows how much you care about your kids. You want to be a good parent. A Christ-like parent. It's the toughest and most important job in the world, and with FaithWeaver NOW Parent we're going to help you do it even better.

You'll learn together with—and from—other parents who wrestle with the same issues you do. Together, you'll work through those issues as parents and give each other brand-new insights into how to weave faith into your family's life. You'll have fun learning together. You'll discover things you never knew about your children, about each other, and about God. You'll laugh together. You'll probably cry together, too. But most importantly, you'll discover how to weave faith into your families and help your kids walk with God for a lifetime.

Because it's FaithWeaver NOW, you and your kids will explore the same Scripture each week. And while your kids are digging deeper into God's Word and discovering how it applies to them, you'll look at those same passages, seeing how they apply to the particular issues you face with your kids and learning how to have confident conversations with your kids about those issues. As you talk more with your kids about their relationship with God, you'll connect with them in ways you never imagined.

Here's what you'll find in your FaithWeaver NOW Parent Handbook—including how to use each piece to get the most out of each week:

John the Baptist Prepares the Way for Jesus Mark 1:1-8

▶Bible Point
We prepare our hearts for Jesus.

Key Verse
"Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me" (Psalm 51:10).

Jesus Brings Good News

Mark saw Jesus' life, ministry, death, and resurrection as the beginning of the gospel. The word gospel, derived from the Old English godspel, means "good news."

Prophets Foretold About Jesus

As Mark began his Gospel, he launched into a quotation from the Old Testament. By connecting what he was saying about Jesus with the words of the prophets, Mark built validity for his own message in the minds of his Jewish readers.

Some question why Mark said the quotation is from Isaiah when in reality the first part is from Malachi 3:1. Mark is mentioning together two quotations on the same topic, and crediting both to Isaiah would have been acceptable for Mark's audience.

By using the quotation from Isaiah in Mark 1:3, Mark emphasized the kingly nature of Jesus. In those days, a servant often traveled ahead of a king to alert people that the king was coming.

John the Baptist Comes Before Jesus

The last half of this passage shows that John the Baptist did what was prophesied in the Old Testament: He came to prepare the way—more specifically, the people—for Jesus' coming. As people repented in response to John's preaching and confessed their sins, their hearts were prepared to accept their coming King.

John the Baptist's choice of clothing was not accidental: He likely was identifying himself with the prophet Elijah, who dressed the same way (2 Kings 1:8). His was the clothing of the poor, and his food was also that of the very poor. John was humbling himself, knowing how great the coming Jesus would be. In those days, it was the job of the lowest servant to untie a visitor's sandals and wash his feet. John let people know that as eloquent and persuasive as his preaching might be, he was the lowest of the low in comparison with the glory of the coming Savior, Jesus.

WEAVING FAITH INTO FAMILIES

There's always so much to do before Christmas. But Jesus cares more about our hearts than about gifts and decorations. We can prepare our hearts by turning from actions and attitudes that are unworthy of those who call Jesus friend and Lord. What do you need to turn from? Pray about that as you prepare to welcome Jesus by living a life worthy of him.

You can write your prayer here.

QUESTION 8
How does turning away from real sin affect your life?

QUESTION 9
What's one thing you can do this week to help your kids turn away from sin and toward God?

Insight for Parents

One at a time, ask your kids to stand and close their eyes. For 30 seconds, direct each child to follow you around the room by listening to your voice. Then switch roles, allowing your children to lead you around the room with your eyes closed. After everyone has done this, talk about what it means to make our hearts ready for Jesus and how we can prepare the way for friends to meet Jesus. Pray together, taking time to admit sins and asking for God's help.

Faith Talk Starter

Tell about a time a special guest came to your home. Maybe it was the first time you invited your in-laws to see your new house, or perhaps you had your pastor over for dinner. Talk with your children about how you prepared for your special guest. Share things you might do again or things you would do differently the next time you invite a guest into your home. Ask your kids to recall how they help get ready for guests. With your children, think about how you would get ready if you knew Jesus was your special guest. Talk about how getting ready for Jesus to visit your home is similar to or different from getting your heart ready for Jesus.

Prayer Starter

What sins do you regularly notice in your kids? Ask God to grant you patience as you try to help them learn to turn to God and away from sin.
