Relational

Person-to-person interaction enhances spiritual growth and builds Christian friendships.

Experiential

What we experience through action and discussion sticks with us up to 9 times longer than what we simply hear or read.

Applicable

The aim of ministry is to equip people to be both hearers and doers of God's Word.

Lifelong

Experiences transform the heart, moving faith beyond the walls of church and into everyday life for years to come.

The future of Sunday school + family ministry is NOW.

No doubt about it, the world is changing. Families used to go to church every week. Kids used to have longer attention spans. Teachers used to have more time to prepare. And didn't our budgets used to be bigger?

Even the Sunday school Bible curriculum you used just a couple of years ago is already out of date. But there's one thing that's never changed: the need to grow families closer to Jesus.

That's why we created FaithWeaver NOW®, and it's different from anything you've ever seen before!

It combines Sunday school with family ministry. ■■■■

Sure, you've seen Sunday school aimed at families. But FaithWeaver NOW actually hits the target by having everyone in the family learning about the same Scripture each week.

It's simpler and easier. ■■■■

Sometimes change is a wonderful thing. Gone are the days when you needed to spend hours preparing your lessons and hunting for supplies. FaithWeaver NOW will have you and your team ready to go in a snap.

It's made for NOW. ■■■■

Life is complicated and full of distractions. FaithWeaver NOW keeps faith on track through even the most frenzied lifestyles.

What makes FaithWeaver NOW the perfect curriculum for TODAY's church?

► Bible Point

Jesus fulfilled God's promise.

Key Verse

"All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had said through the prophet: 'The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel'—which means, 'God with us' " (Matthew 1:22-23).

Weaving Faith Into Families

Parents will trust God with their families.

Every activity incorporates the FaithWeaver NOW Parent Handbook—make sure each parent has one!

1 GETTING STARTED

Broken Promises

What You'll Do

Greet parents warmly as they gather. Make crayons centrally available for parents to use.

Say: Please open your FaithWeaver NOW Parent Handbooks to the “Notes” area in Lesson 1. Draw a picture to represent a time in your childhood when someone broke a promise made to you. Be expressive—show how the experience made you feel. If you can’t think of an experience of your own, you can draw a scene from your child’s life. You’ll have about five minutes to think of something and create before you’ll share with a partner.

After about five minutes, ask parents to partner up with someone who has a child about the same age as their own. Allow several minutes for partners to share. Then ask if a few people are willing to summarize their experience for the entire group.

Say: As a pair, join now with another pair to form a group of four. Then discuss Questions 1 through 3 in your handbooks. You’ll have about seven minutes to chat.

QUESTION 1

Share a time you didn’t quite live up to a promise you made to your child. Why are promises often difficult for parents to keep?

QUESTION 2

How do your kids typically respond when they experience broken promises?

QUESTION 3

How are promises we make within our families like or unlike promises from God?

After about seven minutes, regain everyone’s attention. Ask a few people to share what they talked about.

Say: A broken promise can feel disastrous, causing our trust in someone else to suffer. But promises that are kept can add fullness to life. Today we’ll see that ► JESUS FULFILLED GOD’S PROMISE, and we’ll find out what that means for each of our families.

2 BIBLE EXPLORATION

Promise Fulfilled

What You'll Do

Make sure everyone has a Bible.

Say: Let's look at one of the many prophecies recorded in the Old Testament that Jesus fulfilled. With your group, read Jeremiah 33:14-16.

Allow time for groups to read.

Say: Now in your group, read today's Key Verse, Matthew 1:22-23. Compare it to the verses in Jeremiah, and then ponder this question: What did God promise, and how did he fulfill his promise? Come up with an explanation you can share with your kids. After about five minutes, you'll share with the whole group.

When time's up, invite someone from each group to share what they came up with.

Say: In your groups, discuss Questions 4 through 6 in your handbooks. You'll have about seven minutes.

QUESTION 4

In what ways is this fulfilled promise good news?

QUESTION 5

If God had broken his promise, how would your life and your family members' lives be different?

QUESTION 6

As a parent, when is it easy or difficult for you to trust God to keep his promises? Explain.

After seven minutes, regain everyone's attention. Ask a few parents to share their insights with everyone.

Say: Unlike sinful humans, God keeps every promise he makes. Throughout the Old Testament, God promised to send his Son to be our Savior, and in the New Testament, ► JESUS FULFILLED GOD'S PROMISE. Let's take a deeper look at the impact that good news has on each of our lives.

3 WEAVING FAITH INTO FAMILIES

God With Us

What You'll Do

Give each group an index card and a pen.

Say: A key point in Jesus' prophecy-fulfilling work was simply to come into our world as Immanuel, which means "God with us." On the index card, write an ordinary parenting scenario in which people could choose to trust that Jesus is with them or not. You'll have two minutes to write your scenario before you switch cards with another group. Then you'll discuss what it would look like to trust Jesus or rely on yourself in that situation.

After two minutes, have each group pass its card to another group. Give groups about seven minutes to brainstorm two different results to the new scenario: one in which they trust Jesus and another in which they rely on themselves. If the group members prefer, they can choose to act out their scenes.

After seven minutes, regain everyone's attention and have groups share their results.

Say: In your groups, discuss Questions 7 through 9 in your handbooks. You'll have about six minutes.

QUESTION 7

How might we live differently knowing that Jesus is the fulfillment of God's promise?

QUESTION 8

What helps you recognize—and be grateful for—Jesus' presence with you throughout the week?

QUESTION 9

Based on today's discussion, how can you help your kids trust God more? Give specific examples.

After about six minutes, ask a few parents to share key insights from their discussion.

Say: Trust is an essential element of any relationship. We all know from personal experience that it's hard to trust someone who's broken a promise. God made more than 300 promises to his people, recorded in the Old Testament, that he'd send a Messiah to liberate the people. And ► JESUS FULFILLED GOD'S PROMISE. Because Jesus is God's presence with us, we can trust him fully.

4 LASTING IMPRESSIONS

Daily Challenge

What You'll Do

Say: Today we learned that ► JESUS FULFILLED GOD'S PROMISE. Your Daily Challenge this week is to discuss with your kids some of the promises that God has fulfilled—both in Bible times and today. Take a few minutes to talk to a partner about what this challenge might look like in daily life. Be as specific as you can about how you'll emphasize that God keeps his promises. Allow time.

Say: Let's close in a "popcorn prayer." When I pause, take turns saying words that express your gratitude to God for fulfilling his promises.

Pray: Dear God, we've learned how important it is to keep promises—and how you fulfilled yours in a special way. Thank you for the gift of your Son, Jesus. Pause.

After parents have shared their words of gratitude, pray: Please guide us each day in our parenting, and help our children grow in their faith and trust in your promises. In Jesus' name, amen.

Weaving Faith at Home

Say: Your kids should have a take-home page from this week's lesson to show you. It has their Daily Challenges for this week and ideas for weaving faith at home as a family. Please help your kids follow through with their Daily Challenges. Finally, please use your FaithWeaver NOW Parent Handbook as a resource to grow your own faith in God and for ideas to help your kids grow in theirs.

Talk to your Director about emailing the FREE FamilyConnect to all your church's families. Available at group.com/digital.

Thank parents for coming, and wish them well in weaving faith into their families.
