The future of Sunday school + family ministry is NOW.

No doubt about it, the world is changing. Families used to go to church every week. Kids used to have longer attention spans. Teachers used to have more time to prepare. And didn't our budgets used to be bigger?

Even the Sunday school Bible curriculum you used just a couple of years ago is already out of date. But there's one thing that's never changed: the need to grow families closer to Jesus.

That's why we created FaithWeaver NOW®, and it's different from anything you've ever seen before!

It combines Sunday school with family ministry.

Sure, you've seen Sunday school aimed at families. But FaithWeaver NOW actually hits the target by having everyone in the family learning about the same Scripture each week.

Welcome to the

FaithWeaver NOW Senior High Handbook!

The fact that you're reading this shows how much you care about your faith. You take your relationship with Jesus seriously. You want to live like him. But it can be hard sometimes, especially as a teenager, and with FaithWeaver NOW we're going to help you grow in your faith.

You'll learn together with—and from—other students who wrestle with the same issues you do. Together, you'll work through those issues and give each other brand-new insights into how to weave faith into your life. You'll have fun learning together. You'll discover things you never knew about yourself, about each other, and about God. You'll laugh together. You'll probably cry together, too. But most importantly, you'll discover how to weave faith into your life and walk with God for a lifetime.

Here's what you'll find in your FaithWeaver NOW Senior High Handbook—including how to use each piece to get the most out of each week:

John the Baptist Prepares the Way for Jesus Mark 1:1-8

▶Bible Point
We prepare our hearts for Jesus.

Key Verse
"Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me" (Psalm 51:10).

Jesus Brings Good News

Mark saw Jesus' life, ministry, death, and resurrection as the beginning of the gospel. The word gospel, derived from the Old English godspel, means "good news."

Prophets Foretold About Jesus

As Mark began his Gospel, he launched into a quotation from the Old Testament. By connecting what he was saying about Jesus with the words of the prophets, Mark built validity for his own message in the minds of his Jewish readers.

Some question why Mark said the quotation is from Isaiah when in reality the first part is from Malachi 3:1. Mark is mentioning together two quotations on the same topic, and crediting both to Isaiah would have been acceptable for Mark's audience.

By using the quotation from Isaiah in Mark 1:3, Mark emphasized the kingly nature of Jesus. In those days, a servant often traveled ahead of a king to alert people that the king was coming.

John the Baptist Comes Before Jesus

The last half of this passage shows that John the Baptist did what was prophesied in the Old Testament: He came to prepare the way—more specifically, the people—for Jesus' coming. As people repented in response to John's preaching and confessed their sins, their hearts were prepared to accept their coming King.

BIBLE BACKGROUND

John the Baptist's choice of clothing was not accidental: He likely was identifying himself with the prophet Elijah, who dressed the same way (2 Kings 1:8). His was the clothing of the poor, and his food was also that of the very poor. John was humbling himself, knowing how great the coming Jesus would be. In those days, it was the job of the lowest servant to untie a visitor's sandals and wash his feet. John let people know that as eloquent and persuasive as his preaching might be, he was the lowest of the low in comparison with the glory of the coming Savior, Jesus.

THE JESUS CONNECTION

At Christmas, we anticipate the birth of Jesus. His birth, death, and resurrection make our lives in heaven possible. There is always much to do before Christmas. But Jesus cares more about our hearts than about gifts and decorations. We can prepare our hearts by turning from actions and attitudes that distract us from Jesus. What do you need to turn from?

You can write your prayer here.

TAKING IT HOME

Quotables

""[God] has entrusted us with gifts and talents, and He expects us to guard and use them wisely... We'll not only make the most of each moment, we'll also prepare ourselves for the next season of our lives." —Joshua Harris, I Kissed Dating Goodbye

Daily Challenges

Choose one or more of these Daily Challenges to do this week.

- Use your paper bag to repent this week. Write the things that are making your heart impure, and turn the bag inside out as you ask God to purify your heart.
- Identify barriers that have made you less open to God working in your heart. Pray with someone that God will remove those barriers.
- Ask someone whose faith you respect about repentance and preparing your heart for Jesus.

Faith Journal

What can you do to make your heart more open and ready for Jesus?

Talk With Your Family

Read 2 Corinthians 5:17 with your family, and then discuss the following questions:

- What does it mean to be "in Christ"? What does it mean to be new?
- What old things do you need to let go of in order to prepare your heart for Jesus?

Each family member will need to trace one of his or her thumbs on an index card. A "thumbs up" means that you feel ready for Jesus to make changes in your life; a "thumbs down" means that you're not as ready as you'd like to be. Bring your thumbs to a few meals throughout the week, and discuss reactions to the directions family members' thumbs are pointing. Talk about ways to change any thumbs down to thumbs up, but be sure not to judge or push anyone.
